

in responds to LPFM. k-love radio station has been a great resoure in reaching out the the public for spiritual and fisical needs through out our community. we here in bakersfield realy need a christian radio station like k-love and would appreciate if the FCC would help us out in keeping our station alive and well thank you for your time. Don Banks, a local business owner.